WAITING FOR THE CONSOLATION OF ISRAEL

Psalm 27:14

Wait for Jehovah; hold firm and He shall encourage thine heart; And wait for Jehovah.

Luke 2:25-32

And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was just and circumspect, waiting for the consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him. And it was revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

And he came in the Spirit into the temple, and when the parents were bringing in the little Child Jesus, to do for Him after the custom of the law, and he took Him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, Now "sendest Thou" Thy servant away in peace, O Lord, according to Thy saying; for mine eyes have seen Thy salvation, which Thou hast prepared before the face of all peoples; Light for revelation [to] the nations, and the Glory of Thy people Israel.

Apocalypse Explained 813

"The patience of the saints" signifies the temptation of the faithful, or of those who are made spiritual by the Lord, because "patience" signifies spiritual patience, which is patience in sustaining temptations; and those have that patience who fight in themselves against the falsities that are contained in the dogma of faith alone and that adhere to it; for that faith is confirmed by reasonings from the natural man and from the Word wrongly applied and thus falsified. The temptations that such sustain when they fight against falsities are meant by "patience."

Pastor's Notes

Simeon waited on the Lord and was comforted by His presence when he held the infant Jesus in his arms. We can be comforted by the presence of the Lord too, if we are like Simeon.

We can see from Simeon that waiting on the Lord, having spiritual patience, doesn't mean doing nothing while we anticipate consolation from Him. Simeon was a just and circumspect man while he was waiting it says (Luke 2:25). This means he was a good man working to thoughtfully do what was right—all the while hoping Israel would soon be comforted by the coming of the Messiah.

That is how the Lord gets us through the challenges of temptation too. If we keep working to do what is right even when the Lord may seem far off, then we will be comforted by the presence of the Lord as well.

As we embark on a new year, may we experience the consolation of Israel that Simeon was waiting for. As the Lord teaches us in Psalm 27, "Wait for Jehovah; hold firm and He shall encourage thine heart; And wait for Jehovah" (Psalm 27:14).

HOLY SUPPER will be offered this month on Sunday, January 4th, at the 10:00 a.m. church service, and on Friday, January 23rd, at 6:30 p.m. at the church.

And Jesus said to them, I am the Bread of Life; he who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst.

John 6:35

The Winter Study Topic will be on a portion of the Sermon on the Mount where the Lord says six times in succession, "You have heard that it was declared...but I say to you..." (Matthew 5:21-48). There will be a Feast of Charity on Friday, January 9th introducing the study and the first sermon on the series will be Sunday, January 11th.

If you would like to host a group and have seats to offer, or if you want to join a class, please let me or Jen McQueen know so we can help people get connected if needed.

The readings are available in the society room and digital versions along with audio recordings are available on the website as well.
